

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, Dave Stockland has devoted his life to the betterment of this community by caring, sharing, and day-to-day giving that makes South Dakota a great state in which to live and work; and,

Whereas, Dave has held several positions from Security Officer to his current position of Associate Director for Facilities Management at the University of South Dakota and on May 9, 2003, after 31 years of service, Dave Stockland is retiring; and,

Whereas, During Dave's tenure with Facilities Management, Dave has responded faithfully to the increased complexity of his duties related to the growth of the institution that now has twice the number of students, staff, building square footage and acreage as when he began; and,

Whereas, Dave has made a positive difference in the quality of life at the University of South Dakota, and in the successful attainment of USD's mission to educate the citizens of South Dakota; and,

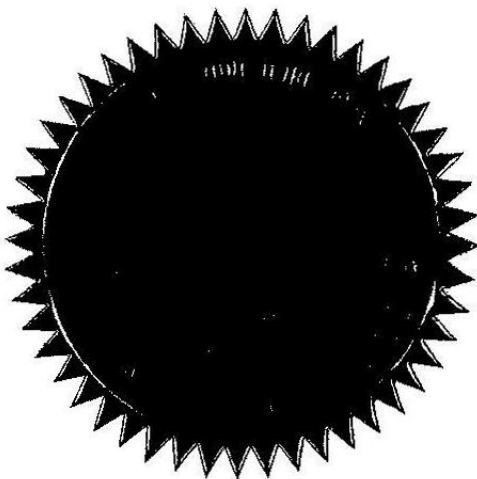

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to make special note of this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of his retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 9, 2003, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends from the University of South Dakota and the Vermillion community in wishing him a fulfilling and happy retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Seventeenth Day of April in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Three.

M. Michael Rounds
